

1. Identify the main idea of the text.
The main idea of the text is that the author is describing a scene of a large crowd gathered for a performance or event, with a focus on the atmosphere and the actions of the people.

THE MAIN IDEA
The main idea of the text is that the author is describing a scene of a large crowd gathered for a performance or event, with a focus on the atmosphere and the actions of the people.

2. Identify the supporting details.
The supporting details in the text include the description of the crowd's size, the atmosphere, and the actions of the people. The author uses descriptive language to convey the excitement and energy of the event.

SUPPORTING DETAILS
The supporting details in the text include the description of the crowd's size, the atmosphere, and the actions of the people. The author uses descriptive language to convey the excitement and energy of the event.

3. Identify the author's purpose.
The author's purpose is to describe the scene and convey the atmosphere of the event. The text is written in a descriptive and engaging style, aiming to immerse the reader in the experience.